How Can We Keep Our School Safe and Happy?

Written by Manta Ray Class

It is very important to keep our school safe and happy. We can do this by looking after each other and making sure that we always show respect and kindness. We can keep our school safe by always telling an adult when something has happened. We can make sure that children always have someone they go to if they are worried.

What Should I Do If I Am Being Bullied? Who Can I Tell?

Written by Octopus Class

I should calm down and say, “Stop. I don’t like it!” I would try not to show the bully that I was sad. I should tell an adult that I trust at home or at school. Here is a helping hand to remember who I can tell;

What Should I Do If I See Someone Being Bullied?

Written By Dolphin Class

- * Tell the “bully” to stop.
- * Tell the child’s teacher.
- * Find an adult to help.
- * Ask the “person” Are you okay?
- * Take the “person” to a safe place.
- * A safe place on the playground is a Becket Buddy Bench or with an adult.
- * A safe place in the classroom is the Calm Tent or with an adult.
- * Keep checking on the “person” to make sure their heart or body isn’t hurting.

What Will Happen If I Tell?

Written by Starfish Class

- You won't be in trouble if you tell about a bully.
- The teacher will need to talk to the person being unkind.
- The teacher will talk to the bully's teacher.
- The teacher will talk to any staff who need to know.
- Your teacher will talk to your parents and the unkind person's parents.
- The teacher will make sure that it won't happen again.
- The teacher will check every now and then to make sure they are still safe and happy.

We are safe, happy and ready to learn.
